Sharlezilettzis DIARY

Charles Letts & Co

1,954,109

THIS figure represents the circulation of CHARLES LETTS'S DIARIES for 1925—it is 275,254 copies above the figure for the preceding year—truly a wonderful record of progress.

There's a reason

The Diaries for 1926 are better than ever.

Attention is drawn to the new Self-Opening Printator Tab (Patents Nos. 147985 and 201431), also to the much improved Accident Insurance Coupon—no one can afford to lose this opportunity of insuring against accidents of everyday occurrence at so nominal a cost.

The Monthly Index marks printed in the Diary portion of most pocket editions are now omitted. Their advantages were small, they were, to many, not a little unsightly, and, after weighing up the pros and consulting the opinions of many, the publishers decided on this step.

On the other hand a very interesting Calendar enabling any day or date to be ascertained over a period of 200 years is now included.

These Diaries more than ever justify The Times in saying:

"Their place at the Top is not likely to be seriously challenged."

In cases where the interval to be subtracted is greater than the London Bridge time, 12 hours must be added to the latter.

Example.-On Jan. 17, morning, High Water at London Bridge is 3h. 47m.; High Water at Dover is 2h. 46m. earlier; subtract 2h. 46m. from 3h. 47m., and time at Dover on that day is shown to be 1h. 1m. a.m.
